This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

P. VIRGILII MARONIS ÆNEIDOS

LIBER I.

ARMA virumque cano, Trojæ qui primus ab oris
Italiam, fato profugus, Laviniaque venit
Litora. Multùm ille et terris jactatus et alto,
Vi superûm, sævæ memorem Junonis ob iram.
Multa quoque et bello passus, dum conderet urbem,
Inferretque Deos Latio: genus unde Latinum, 6
Albanique patres, atque altæ mœnia Romæ.

Of the hero who founde the Trojan kingdom in Italy.

Musa, mihi causas memora, quo numine læso,
Quidve dolens, regina Deûm tot volvere casūs
Insignem pietate virum, tot adire labores, 10
Impulerit. Tantæne animis cœlestibus iræ?

Why did Juno persecute him?

Urbs antiqua fuit—Tyrii tenuere coloni—
Carthago, Italiam contra Tiberinaque longè
Ostia, dives opum, studiisque asperrima belli:
Quam Juno fertur terris magis omnibus unam 15
Posthabitā coluisse Samo. Hìc illius arma,
Hìc currus fuit: hoc regnum Dea gentibus esse,

Because she had heard that her favourite city, Carthage, was one day to be crushed by a nation of Trojan descent.

Si quà fata sinant, jam tum tenditque fovetque.
Progeniem sed enim Trojano a sanguine duci
Audîerat, Tyrias olim quæ verteret arces. 20
Hinc populum, latè regem belloque superbum,
Venturum excidio Libyæ ; sic volvere Parcas.
Id metuens, veterisque memor Saturnia belli,
Prima quod ad Trojam pro caris gesserat Argis—
Necdum etiam causæ irarum sævique dolores 25
Exciderant animo. Manet altā mente repôstum
Judicium Paridis, spretæque injuria formæ,
Et genus invisum, et rapti Ganymedis honores.
His accensa super—jactatos æquore toto
Troas, reliquias Danaûm atque immitis Achilli, 30
Arcebat longè Latio : multosque per annos
Errabant acti fatis maria omnia circum.
Tantæ molis erat Romanam condere gentem.

The Trojans were sailing from Sicily when Juno saw them, and remembering the vengeance Pallas once took on the Greek fleet, was vexed to think that hitherto she had done so little.

Vix e conspectu Siculæ telluris in altum
Vela dabant læti, et spumas salis ære ruebant ; 35
Quum Juno, æternum servans sub pectore vulnus,
Hæc secum : "Mene incepto desistere victam,
Nec posse Italiā Teucrorum avertere regem ?
Quippe vetor fatis ! Pallasne exurere classem
Argivûm, atque ipsos potuit submergere ponto, 40
Unius ob noxam et furias Ajacis Oïlei ?
Ipsa, Jovis rapidum jaculata e nubibus ignem,
Disjecitque rates, evertitque æquora ventis :
Illum exspirantem transfixo pectore flammas
Turbine corripuit, scopuloque infixit acuto. 45
Ast ego, quæ Divûm incedo regina, Jovisque
Et soror et conjux, unā cum gente tot annos
Bella gero. Et quisquam numen Junonis adoret,
Præterea, aut supplex aris imponat honorem ?"
Talia flammato secum Dea corde volutans, 50

Nimborum in patriam, loca feta furentibus Austris,
Æoliam venit. Hìc vasto rex Æolus antro
Luctantes ventos tempestatesque sonoras
Imperio premit, ac vinclis et carcere frenat.
Illi indignantes magno cum murmure montis 55
Circum claustra fremunt. Celsā sedet Æolus arce,
Sceptra tenens, mollitque animos et temperat iras.
Ni faciat, maria ac terras cœlumque profundum
Quippe ferant rapidi secum, verrantque per auras.
Sed pater omnipotens speluncis abdidit atris, 60
Hoc metuens; molemque et montes insuper altos
Imposuit; regemque dedit, qui fœdere certo
Et premere et laxas sciret dare jussus habenas.
Ad quem tum Juno supplex his vocibus usa est:

She goes to Æolia, the prison of the winds, and applies to Æolus, their king.

"Æole—namque tibi Divûm pater atque hominum rex 65
Et mulcere dedit fluctūs et tollere vento—
Gens inimica mihi Tyrrhenum navigat æquor,
Ilium in Italiam portans victosque Penates.
Incute vim ventis, submersasque obrue puppes:
Aut age diversos, et disjice corpora ponto. 70
Sunt mihi bis septem præstanti corpore Nymphæ;
Quarum quæ formā pulcherrima, Deïopeiam
Connubio jungam stabili, propriamque dicabo,
Omnes ut tecum meritis pro talibus annos
Exigat, et pulchrā faciat te prole parentem." 75

She begs him to wreck the Trojan fleet, and promises him one of her nymphs as a wife

Æolus hæc contrà: "Tuus, o regina, quid optes,
Explorare labor; mihi jussa capessere fas est.
Tu mihi quodcumque hoc regni, tu sceptra, Jovemque
Concilias; tu das epulis accumbere Divûm,
Nimborumque facis tempestatumque potentem." 80

Æolus says he cannot refuse a goddess to whom he owes his power.

Hæc ubi dicta, cavum conversā cuspide montem
Impulit in latus; ac venti, velut agmine facto,

He lets the winds out of the cave, and there is a dreadful tempest. Æneas, seeing nothing but death before him, wishes he had died with honour at Troy, like so many of his friends.

Quà data porta, ruunt, et terras turbine perflant.
Incubuere mari, totumque a sedibus imis
Unà Eurusque Notusque ruunt, creberque procellis
Africus, et vastos volvunt ad litora fluctūs. 86
Insequitur clamorque virûm, stridorque rudentum.
Eripiunt subitò nubes cœlumque diemque
Teucrorum ex oculis : ponto nox incubat atra.
Intonuere poli, et crebris micat ignibus æther ; 90
Præsentemque viris intentant omnia mortem.
Extemplo Æneæ solvuntur frigore membra.
Ingemit, et duplices tendens ad sidera palmas,
Talia voce refert : "O terque quaterque beati,
Queis ante ora patrum, Trojæ sub mœnibus altis, 95
Contigit oppetere ! o Danûam fortissime gentis,
Tydide, mene Iliacis occumbere campis
Non potuisse, tuāque animam hanc effundere dextrā !
Sævus ubi telo Æacidæ jacet Hector, ubi ingens
Sarpedon ; ubi tot Simoïs correpta sub undis 100
Scuta virûm, galeasque, et fortia corpora volvit."

The storm grows worse: the ships are dashed on rocks, stranded on sand-banks, or spring leaks, and one is lost.

Talia jactanti stridens Aquilone procella
Velum adversa ferit, fluctūsque ad sidera tollit.
Franguntur remi : tum prora avertit, et undis
Dat latus : insequitur cumulo præruptus aquæ mons.
Hi summo in fluctu pendent, his unda dehiscens
Terram inter fluctūs aperit ; furit æstus arenis. 107
Tres Notus abreptas in saxa latentia torquet—
Saxa vocant Itali, mediis quæ in fluctibus, Aras,
Dorsum immane mari summo. Tres Eurus ab alto
In brevia et syrtes urget, miserabile visu, 111
Illiditque vadis, atque aggere cingit arenæ.
Unam, quæ Lycios fidumque vehebat Orontem,
Ipsius ante oculos ingens a vertice pontus
In puppim ferit : excutitur pronusque magister 115

Volvitur in caput: ast illam ter fluctus ibidem
Torquet agens circûm, et rapidus vorat æquore vortex.
Apparent rari nantes in gurgite vasto,
Arma virûm, tabulæque, et Troïa gaza per undas.
Jam validam Ilionei navem, jam fortis Achatæ, 120
Et quā vectus Abas, et quā grandævus Aletus,
Vicit hiems; laxis laterum compagibus omnes
Accipiunt inimicum imbrem, rimisque fatiscunt.

Neptune rises from the deep and dismisses the winds with threats.

Interea magno misceri murmure pontum,
Emissamque hiemem sensit Neptunus, et imis 125
Stagna refusa vadis, graviter commotus; et alto
Prospiciens, summā placidum caput extulit undā.
Disjectam Æneæ toto videt æquore classem,
Fluctibus oppressos Troas cœlique ruinā.
Nec latuere doli fratrem Junonis, et iræ. 130
Eurum ad se Zephyrumque vocat; dehinc talia fatur:
"Tantane vos generis tenuit fiducia vestri?
Jam cœlum terramque, meo sine numine, Venti,
Miscere, et tantas audetis tollere moles?
Quos ego—Sed motos præstat componere fluctūs:
Pòst mihi non simili pœnā commissa luetis. 136
Maturate fugam, regique hæc dicite vestro—
Non illi imperium pelagi, sævumque tridentem,
Sed mihi sorte datum. Tenet ille immania saxa,
Vestras, Eure, domos. Illā se jactet in aulā 140
Æolus, et clauso ventorum carcere regnet."

He allays the storm and extricates the ships.

Sic ait, et dicto citiùs tumida æquora placat,
Collectasque fugat nubes, solemque reducit.
Cymothoë, simul et Triton adnixus, acuto
Detrudunt naves scopulo: levat ipse tridenti; 145
Et vastas aperit syrtes, et temperat æquor,

Atque rotis summas levibus perlabitur undas.
Ac veluti magno in populo quum sæpe coorta est
Seditio, sævitque animis ignobile vulgus;
Jamque faces et saxa volant; furor arma ministrat:
Tum, pietate gravem ac meritis si forte virum quem 151
Conspexere, silent, arrectisque auribus adstant;
Ille regit dictis animos, et pectora mulcet.
Sic cunctus pelagi cecidit fragor, æquora postquam
Prospiciens genitor, cœloque invectus aperto, 155
Flectit equos, curruque volans dat lora secundo.

The Trojans find a convenient harbour with a cave at the end. They land and prepare a meal.

Defessi Æneadæ, quæ proxima, litora cursu
Contendunt petere, et Libyæ vertuntur ad oras.
Est in secessu longo locus: insula portum
Efficit objectu laterum, quibus omnis ab alto 160
Frangitur inque sinūs scindit sese unda reductos.
Hinc atque hinc vastæ rupes geminique minantur
In cœlum scopuli, quorum sub vertice latè
Æquora tuta silent: tum silvis scena coruscis 164
Desuper, horrentique atrum nemus imminet umbrā.
Fronte sub adversā scopulis pendentibus antrum—
Intus aquæ dulces, vivoque sedilia saxo—
Nympharum domus: hìc fessas non vincula naves
Ulla tenent, unco non alligat ancora morsu.
Huc septem Æneas collectis navibus omni 170
Ex numero subit; ac, magno telluris amore
Egressi, optatā potiuntur Troës arenā,
Et sale tabentes artūs in litore ponunt.
Ac primùm silici scintillam excudit Achates,
Suscepitque ignem foliis, atque arida circùm 175
Nutrimenta dedit, rapuitque in fomite flammam.
Tum Cererem corruptam undis Cerealiaque arma

Expediunt fessi rerum ; frugesque receptas
Et torrere parant flammis et frangere saxo.

Æneas scopulum interea conscendit, et omnem
Prospectum latè pelago petit, Anthea si quem 181
Jactatum vento videat, Phrygiasque biremes,
Aut Capyn, aut celsis in puppibus arma Caïci.
Navem in conspectu nullam, tres litore cervos
Prospicit errantes ; hos tota armenta sequuntur
A tergo, et longum per valles pascitur agmen. 186
Constitit hìc, arcumque manu celeresque sagittas
Corripuit, fidus quæ tela gerebat Achates ;
Ductoresque ipsos primùm, capita alta ferentes
Cornibus arboreis, sternit ; tum vulgus, et omnem
Miscet agens telis nemora inter frondea turbam.
Nec priùs absistit, quàm septem ingentia victor
Corpora fundat humi, et numerum cum navibus æquet.

Æneas, looking for the missing ships, falls in with a herd of stags and kills seven of them, which he distributes among his crews, encouraging them with the thought that they have escaped worse hardships, and that Italy will be theirs at last.

Hinc portum petit, et socios partitur in omnes.
Vina, bonus quæ deinde cadis onerârat Acestes 195
Litore Trinacrio dederatque abeuntibus heros,
Dividit, et dictis mœrentia pectora mulcet :
" O socii (neque enim ignari sumus antè malorum),
O passi graviora : dabit Deus his quoque finem.
Vos et Scyllæam rabiem, penitusque sonantes 200
Accêstis scopulos : vos et Cyclopia saxa
Experti. Revocate animos, mœstumque timorem
Mittite. Forsan et hæc olim meminisse juvabit.
Per varios casũs, per tot discrimina rerum,
Tendimus in Latium, sedes ubi fata quietas 205
Ostendunt : illic fas regna resurgere Trojæ.
Durate, et vosmet rebus servate secundis."

Talia voce refert ; curisque ingentibus æger
Spem vultu simulat, premit altum corde dolorem.

They prepare, cook, and eat their meal, and then lament for their lost comrades.

Illi se prædæ accingunt dapibusque futuris. 210
Tergora deripiunt costis, et viscera nudant:
Pars in frusta secant, verubusque trementia figunt.
Litore aëna locant alii, flammasque ministrant.
Tum victu revocant vires; fusique per herbam
Implentur veteris Bacchi pinguisque ferinæ. 215
Postquam exempta fames epulis mensæque remotæ,
Amissos longo socios sermone requirunt,
Spemque metumque inter dubii, seu vivere credant,
Sive extrema pati, nec jam exaudire vocatos.
Præcipuè pius Æneas, nunc acris Orontei, 220
Nunc Amyci casum gemit, et crudelia secum
Fata Lyci, fortemque Gyan, fortemque Cloanthum.

Jupiter is surveying the scene in Africa, when Venus addresses him, reminding him of his promise of empire to the Trojans, and contrasting their present sufferings with the success of a Trojan migration under Antenor.

Et jam finis erat; quum Jupiter æthere summo
Despiciens mare velivolum, terrasque jacentes,
Litoraque, et latos populos, sic vertice cœli 225
Constitit, et Libyæ defixit lumina regnis.
Atque illum, tales jactantem pectore curas,
Tristior et lacrimis oculos suffusa nitentes,
Alloquitur Venus: "O, qui res hominumque Deûmque
Æternis regis imperiis, et fulmine terres, 230
Quid meus Æneas in te committere tantum,
Quid Troës potuere, quibus, tot funera passis,
Cunctus ob Italiam terrarum clauditur orbis?
Certè hinc Romanos olim, volventibus annis,
Hinc fore ductores, revocato a sanguine Teucri, 235
Qui mare, qui terras, omni ditione tenerent,
Pollicitus, quæ te, Genitor, sententia vertit?
Hoc equidem occasum Trojæ tristesque ruinas
Solabar, fatis contraria fata rependens.

Nunc eadem fortuna viros tot casibus actos 240
Insequitur. Quem das finem, rex magne, laborum?
Antenor potuit, mediis elapsus Achivis,
Illyricos penetrare sinūs, atque intima tutus
Regna Liburnorum et fontem superare Timavi,
Unde per ora novem vasto cum murmure montis
It mare proruptum, et pelago premit arva sonanti.
Hìc tamen ille urbem Pataví sedesque locavit 247
Teucrorum, et genti nomen dedit, armaque fixit
Troïa: nunc placidā compôstus pace quiescit.
Nos, tua progenies, cœli quibus annuis arcem, 250
Navibus—infandum—amissis, unius ob iram
Prodimur, atque Italis longè disjungimur oris.
Hic pietatis honos? Sic nos in sceptra reponis?"

Olli subridens hominum sator atque Deorum,
Vultu, quo cœlum tempestatesque serenat, 255
Oscula libavit natæ; dehinc talia fatur:
"Parce metu, Cytherea; manent immota tuorum
Fata tibi; cernes urbem et promissa Lavinî
Mœnia, sublimemque feres ad sidera cœli 259
Magnanimum Æneam; neque me sententia vertit.
Hic—tibi fabor enim, quando hæc te cura remordet,
Longiùs et volvens fatorum arcana movebo—
Bellum ingens geret Italiā, populosque feroces
Contundet, moresque viris et mœnia ponet,
Tertia dum Latio regnantem viderit æstas, 265
Ternaque transíerint Rutulis hiberna subactis.
At puer Ascanius, cui nunc cognomen Iülo
Additur—Ilus erat, dum res stetit Ilia regno—
Triginta magnos volvendis mensibus orbes
Imperio explebit, regnumque ab sede Lavinî 270
Transferet, et longam multā vi muniet Albam.
Hìc jam ter centum totos regnabitur annos

Jupiter reassures her, telling her what the course of the destined Trojan empire is to be, beginning with Lavinium, passing into Alba, and ending in Rome, whose greatness is to be perfected in the golden age of Augustus.

Gente sub Hectoreā, donec regina sacerdos,
Marte gravis, geminam partu dabit Ilia prolem.
Inde lupæ fulvo nutricis tegmine lætus 275
Romulus excipiet gentem, et Mavortia condet
Mœnia, Romanosque suo de nomine dicet.
His ego nec metas rerum nec tempora pono :
Imperium sine fine dedi. Quin aspera Juno,
Quæ mare nunc terrasque metu cœlumque fatigat,
Consilia in melius referet, mecumque fovebit 281
Romanos rerum dominos gentemque togatam.
Sic placitum. Veniet lustris labentibus ætas,
Quum domus Assaraci Phthiam clarasque Mycenas
Servitio premet, ac victis dominabitur Argis. 285
Nascetur pulchrā Trojanus origine Cæsar—
Imperium Oceano, famam qui terminet astris—
Julius, a magno demissum nomen Iülo.
Hunc tu olim cœlo, spoliis Orientis onustum,
Accipies secura : vocabitur hic quoque votis. 290
Aspera tum positis mitescent secula bellis.
Cana Fides, et Vesta, Remo cum fratre Quirinus,
Jura dabunt : diræ ferro et compagibus arctis
Claudentur Belli portæ : Furor impius intus 294
Sæva sedens super arma, et centum vinctus aënis
Post tergum nodis, fremet horridus ore cruento."

Mercury is sent down to dispose Dido and the Carthaginians to welcome the Trojans.

Hæc ait, et Maiā genitum demittit ab alto ;
Ut terræ, utque novæ pateant Carthaginis arces
Hospitio Teucris, ne fati nescia Dido
Finibus arceret. Volat ille per aëra magnum 300
Remigio alarum, ac Libyæ citus astitit oris.
Et jam jussa facit, ponuntque ferocia Pœni
Corda, volente Deo. In primis regina quietum
Accipit in Teucros animum mentemque benignam.
At pius Æneas per noctem plurima volvens, 305

Ut primùm lux alma data est, exire locosque
Explorare novos ; quas vento accesserit oras,
Qui teneant—nam inculta videt—hominesne, feræne,
Quærere constituit, sociisque exacta referre.
Classem in convexo nemorum, sub rupe cavatā,
Arboribus clausam circùm atque horrentibus umbris, 311
Occulit : ipse uno graditur comitatus Achate,
Bina manu lato crispans hastilia ferro.
Cui mater mediā sese tulit obvia silvā,
Virginis os habitumque gerens et virginis arma 315
Spartanæ : vel qualis equos Threïssa fatigat
Harpalyce, volucremque fugā prævertitur Eurum.
Namque humeris de more habilem suspenderat arcum
Venatrix, dederatque comam diffundere ventis,
Nuda genu, nodoque sinūs collecta fluentes. 320
Ac prior, "Heus," inquit, "juvenes, monstrate mearum
Vidistis si quam hìc errantem forte sororum,
Succinctam pharetrā et maculosæ tegmine lyncis,
Aut spumantis apri cursum clamore prementem."
Sic Venus; at Veneris contrà sic filius orsus: 325
"Nulla tuarum audita mihi, neque visa sororum,
O—quam te memorem?—Virgo; namque haud tibi vultus
Mortalis, nec vox hominem sonat. O Dea certè!
An Phœbi soror? an Nympharum sanguinis una?
Sis felix, nostrumque leves, quæcumque, laborem,
Et quo sub cœlo tandem, quibus orbis in oris 331
Jactemur, doceas: ignari hominumque locorumque

Æneas goes out in the morning to reconnoitre. After hiding his fleet in the cave, he meets his mother in the shape of a huntress, and is accosted by her.

Æneas replies, supposing her to be a goddess, and inquires the name of the country.

Erramus, vento huc et vastis fluctibus acti.
Multa tibi ante aras nostrā cadet hostia dextrā."

Venus informs him that he is in the territory of Carthage, and tells the story of Dido's flight from Tyre to Africa

Tum Venus: "Haud equidem tali me dignor honore. 335
Virginibus Tyriis mos est gestare pharetram,
Purpureoque altè suras vincire cothurno.
Punica regna vides, Tyrios, et Agenoris urbem;
Sed fines Libyci, genus intractabile bello.
Imperium Dido Tyriā regit urbe profecta, 340
Germanum fugiens. Longa est injuria, longæ
Ambages; sed summa sequar fastigia rerum.
Huic conjux Sichæus erat, ditissimus agri
Phœnicum, et magno miseræ dilectus amore;
Cui pater intactam dederat, primisque jugârat 345
Ominibus. Sed regna Tyri germanus habebat
Pygmalion, scelere ante alios immanior omnes.
Quos inter medius venit furor. Ille Sichæum,
Impius ante aras, atque auri cæcus amore,
Clam ferro incautum superat, securus amorum 350
Germanæ, factumque diu celavit; et ægram,
Multa malus simulans, vanā spe lusit amantem.
Ipsa sed in somnis inhumati venit imago
Conjugis, ora modis attollens pallida miris;
Crudeles aras, trajectaque pectora ferro 355
Nudavit, cæcumque domūs scelus omne retexit.
Tum celerare fugam, patriāque excedere suadet;
Auxiliumque viæ veteres tellure recludit
Thesauros, ignotum argenti pondus et auri.
His commota fugam Dido sociosque parabat. 360
Conveniunt, quibus aut odium crudele tyranni
Aut metus acer erat: naves, quæ forte paratæ,
Corripiunt onerantque auro. Portantur avari
Pygmalionis opes pelago: dux femina facti.

Devenere locos, ubi nunc ingentia cernes 365
Mœnia, surgentemque novæ Carthaginis arcem :
Mercatique solum, facti de nomine Byrsam,
Taurino quantum possent circumdare tergo.
Sed vos qui tandem? quibus aut venistis ab oris?
Quòve tenetis iter?" Quærenti talibus ille 370
Suspirans, imoque trahens a pectore vocem :
"O Dea, si primâ repetens ab origine pergam,
Et vacet annales nostrorum audire laborum,
Antè diem clauso componet vesper Olympo.
Nos Trojâ antiquâ—si vestras forte per aures 375
Trojæ nomen iit—diversa per æquora vectos,
Forte suâ Libycis tempestas appulit oris.
Sum pius Æneas, raptos qui ex hoste Penates
Classe veho mecum, famâ super æthera notus.
Italiam quæro patriam, et genus ab Jove summo.
Bis denis Phrygium conscendi navibus æquor, 381
Matre Deâ monstrante viam, data fata sequutus.
Vix septem convulsæ undis Euroque supersunt.
Ipse ignotus, egens, Libyæ deserta peragro,
Europâ atque Asiâ pulsus." Nec plura querentem
Passa Venus, medio sic interfata dolore est : 386

Æneas tells his name and fortunes.

"Quisquis es, haud (credo) invisus cœlestibus auras
Vitales carpis, Tyriam qui adveneris urbem.
Perge modò, atque hinc te Reginæ ad limina perfer.
Namque tibi reduces socios classemque relatam
Nuntio, et in tutum versis Aquilonibus actam, 391
Ni frustra augurium vani docuere parentes.
Aspice bis senos, lætantes agmine, cycnos,
Ætheriâ quos lapsa plagâ Jovis ales aperto
Turbabat cœlo : nunc terras ordine longo 395
Aut capere, aut captas jam despectare videntur.

Venus assures him of a welcome from the queen, and also of the safety of his missing ships.

Ut reduces illi ludunt stridentibus alis,
Et cœtu cinxere polum, cantūsque dedêre ;
Haud aliter puppesque tuæ pubesque tuorum
Aut portum tenet, aut pleno subit ostia velo. 400
Perge modò, et, quà te ducit via, dirige gressum."

Æneas recognizes his mother as she leaves him. She makes him and Achates invisible.

Dixit ; et avertens roseā cervice refulsit,
Ambrosiæque comæ divinum vertice odorem
Spiravere ; pedes vestis defluxit ad imos,
Et vera incessu patuit Dea. Ille, ubi matrem 405
Agnovit, tali fugientem est voce sequutus :
" Quid natum toties, crudelis tu quoque, falsis
Ludis imaginibus ? cur dextræ jungere dextram
Non datur, ac veras audire et reddere voces ? "
Talibus incusat, gressumque ad mœnia tendit. 410
At Venus obscuro gradientes aëre sepsit,
Et multo nebulæ circum dea fudit amictu :
Cernere ne quis eos, neu quis contingere posset,
Molirive moram, aut veniendi poscere causas.
Ipsa Paphum sublimis abit, sedesque revisit 415
Læta suas, ubi templum illi, centumque Sabæo
Ture calent aræ, sertisque recentibus halant.

As they enter the city they see the Carthaginians building, as busy as bees in spring.

Corripuere viam interea, quà semita monstrat.
Jamque ascendebant collem, qui plurimus urbi
Imminet, adversasque aspectat desuper arces. 420
Miratur molem Æneas, magalia quondam ;
Miratur portas, strepitumque, et strata viarum.
Instant ardentes Tyrii : pars ducere muros,
Molirique arcem, et manibus subvolvere saxa ;
Pars optare locum tecto, et concludere sulco. 425
Jura magistratūsque legunt, sanctumque senatum.
Hìc portūs alii effodiunt : hìc alta theatris
Fundamenta locant alii, immanesque columnas
Rupibus excidunt, scenis decora alta futuris.

Qualis apes æstate novā per florea rura 430
Exercet sub sole labor, quum gentis adultos
Educunt fetūs, aut quum liquentia mella
Stipant, et dulci distendunt nectare cellas,
Aut onera accipiunt venientûm, aut agmine factò
Ignavum fucos pecus a præsepibus arcent. 435
Fervet opus, redolentque thymo fragrantia mella.
"O fortunati, quorum jam mœnia surgunt!"
Æneas ait, et fastigia suspicit urbis.
Infert se septus nebulā, mirabile dictu,
Per medios, miscetque viris, neque cernitur ulli.
Lucus in urbe fuit mediā, lætissimus umbræ; 441
Quo primùm jactati undis et turbine Pœni
Effodêre loco signum, quod regia Juno
Monstrârat, caput acris equi: sic nam fore bello
Egregiam, et facilem victu per secula gentem. 445
Hìc templum Junoni ingens Sidonia Dido
Condebat, donis opulentum et numine Divæ;
Ærea cui gradibus surgebant limina, nexæque
Ære trabes, foribus cardo stridebat aënis.
Hoc primùm in luco nova res oblata timorem 450
Leniit; hìc primùm Æneas sperare salutem
Ausus, et afflictis meliùs confidere rebus.
Namque, sub ingenti lustrat dum singula templo,
Reginam opperiens; dum, quæ fortuna sit urbi,
Artificumque manūs inter se operumque laborem
Miratur; videt Iliacas ex ordine pugnas, 456
Bellaque jam famā totum vulgata per orbem,
Atridas, Priamumque, et sævum ambobus Achillem.
Constitit, et lacrimans: "Quis jam locus," inquit,
"Achate,
Quæ regio in terris nostri non plena laboris? 460
En Priamus: sunt hìc etiam sua præmia laudi;

Æneas enters a grove where a temple is in building to Juno. There he sees represented the various incidents of the Trojan war.

Sunt lacrimæ rerum, et mentem mortalia tangunt.
Solve metus; feret hæc aliquam tibi fama salutem."
Sic ait, atque animum pictura pascit inani, 464
Multa gemens, largoque humectat flumine vultum.
Namque videbat, uti bellantes Pergama circum
Hâc fugerent Graii, premeret Trojana juventus;
Hâc Phryges, instaret curru cristatus Achilles.
Nec procul hinc Rhesi niveis tentoria velis
Agnoscit lacrimans, primo quæ prodita somno 470
Tydides multā vastabat cæde cruentus,
Ardentesque avertit equos in castra, priusquam
Pabula gustâssent Trojæ, Xanthumque bibissent.
Parte aliā fugiens amissis Troïlus armis,
Infelix puer, atque impar congressus Achilli, 475
Fertur equis, curruque hæret resupinus inani,
Lora tenens tamen: huic cervixque comæque trahuntur
Per terram, et versā pulvis inscribitur hastā.
Interea ad templum non æquæ Palladis ibant
Crinibus Iliades passis, peplumque ferebant 480
Suppliciter tristes, et tunsæ pectora palmis.
Diva solo fixos oculos aversa tenebat.
Ter circum Iliacos raptaverat Hectora muros,
Exanimumque auro corpus vendebat Achilles.
Tum verò ingentem gemitum dat pectore ab imo,
Ut spolia, ut currūs, utque ipsum corpus amici, 486
Tendentemque manūs Priamum conspexit inermes.
Se quoque principibus permixtum agnovit Achivis,
Eoasque acies, et nigri Memnonis arma.
Ducit Amazonidum lunatis agmina peltis 490
Penthesilea furens, mediisque in millibus ardet,
Aurea subnectens exsertæ cingula mammæ
Bellatrix, audetque viris concurrere virgo.

Hæc dum Dardanio Æneæ miranda videntur,
Dum stupet, obtutuque hæret defixus in uno ; 495
Regina ad templum formā pulcherrima Dido
Incessit, magnā juvenum stipante catervā.
Qualis in Eurotæ ripis, aut per juga Cynthi
Exercet Diana choros, quam mille sequutæ
Hinc atque hinc glomerantur Oreades—illa pharetram 500
Fert humero, gradiensque Deas supereminet omnes ;
Latonæ tacitum pertentant gaudia pectus—
Talis erat Dido, talem se læta ferebat
Per medios, instans operi regnisque futuris.
Tum foribus Divæ, mediā testudine templi, 505
Septa armis solioque altè subnixa, resedit.
Jura dabat legesque viris, operumque laborem
Partibus æquabat justis, aut sorte trahebat :
Quum subitò Æneas concursu accedere magno
Anthea Sergestumque videt, fortemque Cloanthum, 510
Teucrorumque alios, ater quos æquore turbo
Dispulerat, penitusque alias avexerat oras.
Obstupuit simul ipse, simul perculsus Achates
Lætitiāque metuque. Avidi conjungere dextras
Ardebant ; sed res animos incognita turbat. 515
Dissimulant, et nube cavā speculantur amicti,
Quæ fortuna viris, classem quo litore linquant,
Quid veniant : cunctis nam lecti navibus ibant
Orantes veniam, et templum clamore petebant.

As he is gazing, Dido enters the temple, where she holds a court. To his surprise, his missing comrades appear and address her.

Postquam introgressi, et coram data copia fandi,
Maximus Ilioneus placido sic pectore cœpit : 521
" O regina, novam cui condere Jupiter urbem,
Justitiāque dedit gentes frenare superbas,

Ilioneus, as their spokesman, tells his tale and begs for permission for them to refit

their ships, that they may be able to sail either to Italy or Sicily.

Troës te miseri, ventis maria omnia vecti,
Oramus : prohibe infandos a navibus ignes, 525
Parce pio generi, et propiùs res aspice nostras.
Non nos aut ferro Libycos populare Penates
Venimus, aut raptas ad litora vertere prædas.
Non ea vis animo, nec tanta superbia victis.
Est locus—Hesperiam Graii cognomine dicunt—
Terra antiqua, potens armis atque ubere glebæ ;
Œnotri coluere viri ; nunc fama, minores 532
Italiam dixisse, ducis de nomine, gentem.
Huc cursus fuit,
Quum subitò assurgens fluctu nimbosus Orion
In vada cæca tulit, penitusque procacibus Austris
Perque undas, superante salo, perque invia saxa
Dispulit : huc pauci vestris adnavimus oris.
Quod genus hoc hominum? quæve hunc tam barbara morem
Permittit patria? hospitio prohibemur arenæ : 540
Bella cient, primāque vetant consistere terrā.
Si genus humanum et mortalia temnitis arma ;
At sperate Deos memores fandi atque nefandi.
Rex erat Æneas nobis, quo justior alter
Nec pietate fuit, nec bello major et armis ; 545
Quem si fata virum servant, si vescitur aurā
Æthereā, neque adhuc crudelibus occubat umbris,
Non metus, officio ne te certâsse priorem
Pœniteat. Sunt et Siculis regionibus urbes,
Arvaque, Trojanoque a sanguine clarus Acestes.
Quassatam ventis liceat subducere classem, 551
Et silvis aptare trabes, et stringere remos.
Si datur Italiam, sociis et rege recepto,
Tendere, ut Italiam læti Latiumque petamus :
Sin absumpta salus, et te, pater optime Teucrûm,

Pontus habet Libyæ, nec spes jam restat Iüli ; 556
At freta Sicaniæ, saltem sedesque paratas,
Unde huc advecti, regemque petamus Acestem."
Talibus Ilioneus ; cuncti simul ore fremebant
Dardanidæ. 560

Tum breviter Dido, vultum demissa, profatur :
" Solvite corde metum, Teucri, secludite curas.
Res dura et regni novitas me talia cogunt
Moliri, et latè fines custode tueri.
Quis genus Æneadûm, quis Trojæ nesciat urbem ?
Virtutesque, virosque, et tanti incendia belli ? 566
Non obtusa adeo gestamus pectora Pœni ;
Nec tam aversus equos Tyriā Sol jungit ab urbe.
Seu vos Hesperiam magnam, Saturniaque arva,
Sive Erycis fines, regemque optatis Acestem, 570
Auxilio tutos dimittam, opibusque juvabo.
Vultis et his mecum pariter considere regnis ?
Urbem quam statuo, vestra est ; subducite naves ;
Tros Tyriusque mihi nullo discrimine agetur.
Atque utinam rex ipse Noto compulsus eodem 575
Afforet Æneas ! Equidem per litora certos
Dimittam, et Libyæ lustrare extrema jubebo,
Si quibus ejectus silvis aut urbibus errat."

Dido welcomes them, offers them either a temporary sojourn or a lasting home, and promises to search for Æneas.

His animum arrecti dictis, et fortis Achates,
Et pater Æneas, jamdudum erumpere nubem 580
Ardebant ; prior Æneam compellat Achates :
" Nate Deā, quæ nunc animo sententia surgit ?
Omnia tuta vides, classem, sociosque receptos.
Unus abest, medio in fluctu quem vidimus ipsi
Submersum : dictis respondent cetera matris." 585
Vix ea fatus erat, quum circumfusa repente
Scindit se nubes, et in æthera purgat apertum.
Restitit Æneas, clarāque in luce refulsit,

Instantly Æneas and Achates become visible; Æneas thanks Dido for her splendid and ever-memorable generosity.

Os humerosque Deo similis : namque ipsa decoram
Cæsariem nato genitrix, lumenque juventæ 590
Purpureum, et lætos oculis afflârat honores :
Quale manūs addunt ebori decus, aut ubi flavo
Argentum Pariusve lapis circumdatur auro.
Tum sic reginam alloquitur, cunctisque repente
Improvisus ait : "Coram, quem quæritis, adsum
Troïus Æneas, Libycis ereptus ab undis. 596
O sola infandos Trojæ miserata labores !
Quæ nos, reliquias Danaûm, terræque marisque
Omnibus exhaustos jam casibus, omnium egenos,
Urbe, domo socias. Grates persolvere dignas 600
Non opis est nostræ, Dido ; nec quicquid ubique est
Gentis Dardaniæ, magnum quæ sparsa per orbem ;
Dî tibi, si qua pios respectant numina, si quid
Usquam justitiæ est et mens sibi conscia recti,
Præmia digna ferant. Quæ te tam læta tulerunt
Secula ? qui tanti talem genuere parentes ? 606
In freta dum fluvii current, dum montibus umbræ
Lustrabunt convexa, polus dum sidera pascet,
Semper honos, nomenque tuum, laudesque manebunt,
Quæ me cumque vocant terræ." Sic fatus, amicum
Ilionea petit dextrā, lævāque Serestum : 611
Pòst alios, fortemque Gyan, fortemque Cloanthum.

Dido tells him that she has heard of him from Teucer, a wandering Greek, and bids him welcome. She sends food to the crews at the

Obstupuit primo aspectu Sidonia Dido,
Casu deinde viri tanto ; et sic ore loquuta est :
"Quis te, nate Deā, per tanta pericula casus 615
Insequitur ? quæ vis immanibus applicat oris ?
Tune ille Æneas, quem Dardanio Anchisæ
Alma Venus Phrygii genuit Simoëntis ad undam ?
Atque equidem Teucrum memini Sidona venire,

Finibus expulsum patriis, nova regna petentem 620
Auxilio Beli. Genitor tum Belus opimam
Vastabat Cyprum, et victor ditione tenebat.
Tempore jam ex illo casus mihi cognitus urbis
Trojanæ, nomenque tuum, regesque Pelasgi.
Ipse hostis Teucros insigni laude ferebat, 625
Seque ortum antiquā Teucrorum a stirpe volebat.
Quare agite, o tectis, juvenes, succedite nostris!
Me quoque per multos similis fortuna labores
Jactatam hâc demum voluit consistere terrā.
Non ignara mali, miseris succurrere disco." 630
Sic memorat, simul Ænean in regia ducit
Tecta, simul Divûm templis indĭcit honorem.
Nec minùs interea sociis ad litora mittit
Viginti tauros, magnorum horrentia centum
Terga suûm, pingues centum cum matribus agnos,
Munera lætitiamque dii. 636

ships, and orders a splendid banquet at the palace.

At domus interior regali splendida luxu
Instruitur, mediisque parant convivia tectis.
Arte laboratæ vestes, ostroque superbo:
Ingens argentum mensis, cælataque in auro 640
Fortia facta patrum, series longissima rerum,
Per tot ducta viros antiquā ab origine gentis.

Æneas—neque enim patrius consistere mentem
Passus amor—rapidum ad naves præmittit Achatem,
Ascanio ferat hæc, ipsumque ad mœnia ducat. 645
Omnis in Ascanio cari stat cura parentis.
Munera præterea, Iliacis erepta ruinis,
Ferre jubet, pallam signis auroque rigentem,
Et circumtextum croceo velamen acantho,
Ornatūs Argivæ Helenæ, quos illa Mycenis, 650
Pergama quum peteret inconcessosque Hymenæos,

Æneas sends Achates for Ascanius, bidding him bring royal ornaments as a present for Dido.

Extulerat, matris Ledæ mirabile donum ;
Præterea sceptrum, Ilione quod gesserat olim,
Maxima natarum Priami, colloque monile
Baccatum, et duplicem gemmis auroque coronam.
Hæc celerans, iter ad naves tendebat Achates.

Venus distrusts Dido, and lays a plot to secure her affections by substituting Cupid for Ascanius, whom she conveys to Idalia.

At Cytherea novas artes, nova pectore versat
Consilia ; ut faciem mutatus et ora Cupido
Pro dulci Ascanio veniat, donisque furentem
Incendat reginam, atque ossibus implicet ignem.
Quippe domum timet ambiguam, Tyriosque bilingues. 661
Urit atrox Juno, et sub noctem cura recursat.
Ergò his aligerum dictis affatur Amorem :
" Nate, meæ vires, mea magna potentia, solus,
Nate, patris summi qui tela Typhoïa temnis ; 665
Ad te confugio, et supplex tua numina posco.
Frater ut Æneas pelago tuus omnia circum
Litora jactetur, odiis Junonis iniquæ,
Nota tibi ; et nostro doluisti sæpe dolore.
Hunc Phœnissa tenet Dido, blandisque moratur
Vocibus : et vereor, quò se Junonia vertant 671
Hospitia : haud tanto cessabit cardine rerum.
Quocirca capere antè dolis, et cingere flammā
Reginam meditor, ne quo se numine mutet,
Sed magno Æneæ mecum teneatur amore. 675
Quà facere id possis, nostram nunc accipe mentem.
Regius, accitu cari genitoris, ad urbem
Sidoniam puer ire parat, mea maxima cura,
Dona ferens, pelago et flammis restantia Trojæ.
Hunc ego sopitum somno, super alta Cythera, 680
Aut super Idalium, sacratā sede recondam,
Ne quà scire dolos mediusve occurrere possit.

Tu faciem illius, noctem non ampliùs unam,
Falle dolo, et notos pueri puer indue vultūs :
Ut, quum te gremio accipiet lætissima Dido, 685
Regales inter mensas laticemque Lyæum,
Quum dabit amplexūs, atque oscula dulcia figet,
Occultum inspires ignem, fallasque veneno."
Paret Amor dictis caræ genitricis, et alas
Exuit, et gressu gaudens incedit Iüli. 690

At Venus Ascanio placidam per membra quietem
Irrigat ; et fotum gremio dea tollit in altos
Idaliæ lucos, ubi mollis amaracus illum
Floribus et dulci aspirans complectitur umbrā.
Jamque ibat dicto parens, et dona Cupido 695
Regia portabat Tyriis, duce lætus Achate.
Quum venit, aulæis jam se regina superbis
Aureā composuit spondā, mediamque locavit.

Cupid arrives as the feast is beginning. He is fondled by Dido, whose affections he kindles gradually.

Jam pater Æneas et jam Trojana juventus
Conveniunt, stratoque super discumbitur ostro. 700
Dant famuli manibus lymphas, Cereremque canistris
Expediunt, tonsisque ferunt mantilia villis.
Quinquaginta intus famulæ, quibus ordine longam
Cura penum struere, et flammis adolere Penates :
Centum aliæ, totidemque pares ætate ministri, 705
Qui dapibus mensas onerent, et pocula ponant.
Necnon et Tyrii per limina læta frequentes
Convenere, toris jussi discumbere pictis.
Mirantur dona Æneæ, mirantur Iülum,
Flagrantesque dei vultūs, simulataque verba, 710
Pallamque et pictum croceo velamen acantho.
Præcipuè infelix, pesti devota futuræ,
Expleri mentem nequit ardescitque tuendo
Phœnissa ; et pariter puero donisque movetur.

Ille, ubi complexu Æneæ colloque pependit 715
Et magnum falsi implevit genitoris amorem,
Reginam petit. Hæc oculis, hæc pectore toto
Hæret, et interdum gremio fovet, inscia Dido,
Insideat quantus miseræ deus. At memor ille
Matris Acidaliæ, paulatim abolere Sichæum 720
Incipit, et vivo tentat prævertere amore
Jampridem resides animos desuetaque corda.

The feast proceeds. Dido makes a libation to Jupiter, Bacchus, and Juno, and prays that the Carthaginians and Trojans may be united. The time passes in song and talk, till Dido begs Æneas to tell the whole story of the fall of Troy, and his seven years of wandering.

Postquam prima quies epulis mensæque remotæ,
Crateras magnos statuunt, et vina coronant.
Fit strepitus tectis, vocemque per ampla volutant
Atria : dependent lychni laquearibus aureis 726
Incensi, et noctem flammis funalia vincunt.
Hìc Regina gravem gemmis auroque poposcit
Implevitque mero pateram, quam Belus et omnes
A Belo soliti. Tum facta silentia tectis : 730
"Jupiter,—hospitibus nam te dare jura loquuntur—
Hunc lætum Tyriisque diem Trojāque profectis
Esse velis, nostrosque hujus meminisse minores.
Adsit lætitiæ Bacchus dator, et bona Juno !
Et vos, o cœtum, Tyrii, celebrate faventes !" 735
Dixit, et in mensam laticum libavit honorem ;
Primaque libato summo tenus attigit ore.
Tum Bitiæ dedit increpitans : ille impiger hausit
Spumantem pateram, et pleno se proluit auro :
Pòst alii proceres. Citharā crinitus Iopas 740
Personat auratā, docuit quæ maximus Atlas.
Hic canit errantem lunam, solisque labores ;
Unde hominum genus, et pecudes ; unde imber, et ignes :
Arcturum, pluviasque Hyadas, geminosque Triones ;
Quid tantùm Oceano properent se tingere soles 745

Hiberni, vel quæ tardis mora noctibus obstet.
Ingeminant plausu Tyrii, Troësque sequuntur.
  Necnon et vario noctem sermone trahebat
Infelix Dido, longumque bibebat amorem,
Multa super Priamo rogitans, super Hectore multa;
Nunc, quibus Auroræ venisset filius armis; 751
Nunc, quales Diomedis equi; nunc, quantus
  Achilles.
"Immo, age, et a primâ dic, hospes, origine nobis
Insidias," inquit, "Danaûm, casūsque tuorum,
Erroresque tuos; nam te jam septima portat
Omnibus errantem terris et fluctibus æstas." 756
